The History of the 1775 MINUTE MAN

When the British ignored the pleas of the Continental Congress, militia units, made up of farmers, were organized. Volunteers called themselves MINUTE MEN, because they said they were ready to take up arms "at a minutes notice" to protect their freedom.

The first battle of the revolution was fought at Concord Bridge. The British were routed and forced back to Boston. Thus the first battle of the revolution ended in a rousing victory for the MINUTE MEN.
